The Origins of Humanity

The Dawn of Human Existence

The story of the world begins with the emergence of Homo sapiens in Africa approximately 300,000 years ago. The migration out of Africa, known as the “Great Migration,” was a pivotal event that led humans to inhabit every continent except Antarctica.

The Development of Early Societies

Early humans lived as nomadic hunter-gatherers, relying on hunting animals and gathering plants for survival. Over time, the development of agriculture around 10,000 years ago in the Fertile Crescent marked a revolutionary shift, leading to settled communities, surplus food storage, and the rise of villages.

Adjusting screen brightness to match ambient lighting further enhances comfort and protects eye health during long reading sessions.
