Origins and Early Development

The alto saxophone was invented by Adolphe Sax in the 1840s, with the instrument gaining popularity in military bands and orchestras in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. As the instrument's role expanded into jazz and popular music, so too did the demand for solo repertoire tailored for the alto saxophone. Early solo sheet music for the alto saxophone often consisted of transcriptions of classical works, arrangements of popular tunes, and pedagogical etudes. These pieces were primarily designed to develop technical skills and musicality, often with simplified arrangements suitable for student performers.

This era saw an explosion in alto sax solo sheet music, including transcriptions of legendary solos, original compositions, and improvisational exercises.
