Rebuilding a Divided Nation

Following the end of the Civil War in 1865, the United States faced the monumental task of reunifying the fractured nation. The Reconstruction era was characterized by efforts to integrate formerly enslaved African Americans into society, rebuild the Southern economy, and redefine federal-state relations. Key objectives during this period included: - Reintegrating Southern states into the Union - Securing civil rights for freed slaves - Rebuilding Southern infrastructure and economy - Establishing new political and social norms

Legislative and Constitutional Changes

Reconstruction efforts led to significant legislative actions: - The 13th Amendment (1865): Abolished slavery nationwide. - The 14th Amendment (1868): Granted citizenship and equal protection under the law to all persons born or naturalized in the U.S. - The 15th Amendment (1870): Prohibited denying the right to vote based on race, color, or previous condition of servitude. These amendments aimed to guarantee civil rights for African Americans, but their enforcement was inconsistent, especially in the South.
