- Market Drivers: Consumer demand, technological changes, and competitive dynamics.
- Institutional Contexts: Regulatory environments, legal systems, and cultural norms.
- Resource Capabilities: Internal strengths and weaknesses relative to external opportunities and threats.

By assessing these elements, organizations can craft strategies that are both globally coherent and locally responsive. - Firms operating in such environments must develop alternative strategies, such as building informal networks or leveraging government relationships.
- Recognizing and adapting to institutional voids can be a source of competitive advantage. - Success hinges on understanding local contexts and innovating in response to institutional deficiencies.
