The Need for a Clearer Presentation of Doctrine

Throughout its long history, the Catholic Church has faced numerous challenges and periods of doctrinal clarification. The Second Vatican Council (1962-1965) marked a significant turning point, emphasizing the importance of engaging with contemporary culture and promoting renewed catechesis. Following this, the Church recognized the necessity of a comprehensive, updated presentation of its teachings that could serve both the faithful and the wider world.

Creation of the Compendium

In 1997, Pope John Paul II issued the motu proprio Fidei Depositum, calling for a new catechism to be produced.
