Understanding Spiritual Authority According to Charles Capps

The Biblical Foundation of Spiritual Authority

Charles Capps taught that spiritual authority is rooted in the Bible, especially in passages like Mark 11:22-23, which states:

"Have faith in God... whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith."

This passage highlights the believer's authority to speak to mountains—representing obstacles—and see them moved through faith and words.

The Role of the Believer

According to Capps, every Christian has been given authority through Christ to:

1. Reign in life
2. Speak the Word of God with faith
3. Exercise dominion over circumstances and the devil

He emphasized that understanding and exercising this authority is essential for living a victorious Christian life.

The Power of Words

A significant aspect of Capps' teaching is the power of speech. He believed that words are containers of power, capable of releasing either life or death, prosperity or defeat. He often quoted Proverbs 18:21:

"Death and life are in the power of the tongue."

Therefore, believers must speak faith-filled words aligned with God's Word to activate their spiritual authority.

Key Principles of Spiritual Authority from Charles Capps

1. Know the Word of God

The foundation of exercising spiritual authority is a thorough knowledge of Scripture. Capps stressed that:
